INTRODUCTION OF BILL

Sri Kadidal MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue).—Sir, I beg to introduce the Mysore (Personal and Miscellaneous) Inams Abolition (Amendment) Bill, 1958.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Mysore (Personal and Miscellaneous) Inams Abolition (Amendment) Bill, 1958, is introduced.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Sharavathi Hydro-Electric Project-Inclusien in the core of the Plan.

*Sri MAHMOOD SHARIFF (Broadway).—Mr. Speaker, Sir, I am really happy that the resolution under discussion has generally met with the approval of the members of this august House. All members ranged on both the sides of the House, those on the side of the Treasury Benches and those who belong to the Opposition, have conjointly raised their voices in respect of a subject which is very vital to the interests of the development and progress of Mysore State. With due deference I have to say with great regret that so far as the Central Government is concerned, it has been of late using its dictatorial power in respect of certain units of India and in respect of certain matters without giving due regard to the real needs and requirements of that particular unit and without extending such help and co-operation as would enable that particular unit to raise itself to the highest stature. The result has been, Sir, that some of the States which were considered to be in the vanguard of progress, which were holding the palm so to speak, for progress and advancement, feel themselves frustrated, helpless and dismayed. It is therefore necessary, Sir, that people belonging to that particular unit should raise their voice against this action of the Central Government, not in a spirit of challence, but by employing sweet reasonableness . . . . .

Sri B. K. PUTTARAMIYA (Channapatna).—I rise to a point of order Sir. Is it permitted for an Hon'ble Member to bring a Latta into the House ?

Sri L. S. VENKAJI RAO (Basavanagudi).—That belongs to Sri N. Hutchamasthi Gowda.

Sri MAHMOOD SHARIFF.—In the circumstances, Sir, it is necessary for the people belonging to the particular unit to raise their protest against this action of the Central Government, not in a spirit of challenge, but by employing sweet reasonableness, so
